THE CAPITOL STEPS CAMPAIGN AND SUFFERING

SAGINAW -- Get the best of Campaign 2008...The Campaign and Suffering tour with the Capitol Steps. See some of the best scandals of last year, including songs on Larry Craig, Don Imus, Alberto Gonzales, the Supreme Court, food from China, and drugs from the U.S.

Straight from Washington, D.C., The Capitol Steps are the only people who attempt to be funnier than the politicians! This troupe of former, but not disgruntled, Congressional Staffers travels the country satirizing the very people and places that once employed them. The bi-partisan cast of The Capitol Steps pokes fun at the current state of politics with satire and parody. The Capitol Steps have been featured on "Good Morning America," "Entertainment Tonight," "NBC Nightly News," NPR's "All Things Considered," and CNN's "Inside Politics."

The Capitol Steps come armed and hilarious with new songs and numbers. Their material is updated constantly, whether it is the Democrats' current infatuation with Barack Obama, and scandals with Don Imus. No matter who's in the headlines, the Capitol Steps are equal opportunity offenders.

"Some people in Washington are confused, The Capitol Steps are not." – Former Vice President Al Gore

"The Capitol Steps are what Washington would be like if everyone were smarter and could sing" – P.J. O'Rourke, Humorist

"The Capitol Steps make it easier to leave public life" – former President George Bush
