Christmas at the Temple Theatre Presented by Valley Cultural Arts Association

SAGINAW, MI -- Valley Cultural Arts Association presents Christmas at the Temple Theatre a magical creation for the entire family.

Share good tidings with your neighbors, family and friends when attending Christmas at the Temple Theatre on November 21 at 4pm, presented by Valley Cultural Arts Association. The show entails a family getting ready for the holiday season, from going to the mall, to a nativity scene and ending with a family gathering. A host of local talent from the Great Lakes Bay Region will perform including actors, singers, dancers, a fantastic choir, plus a surprise visit from Santa. Audience members are sure to enjoy the unbelievable choreography, inspiring vocals and scenic stage.

The purpose of this program is to enrich the community in the performing arts and to donate all the proceeds to a non profit organization, Shriners Hospital for Children. The worlds greatest philanthropy which has 22 hospitals; 18 orthopedic, three burn care locations, and one that provides orthopedic, burn and spinal cord injury care, helping nearly 900 thousand children world wide at no cost to the family or child.

Tickets go on sale to the general public on Monday, September 28th at 10:00am and are $10, $15 and $20 for reserved seats. Marquee Club Members are invited to purchase pre sale tickets now. Tickets can be purchased by calling 877-754-SHOW, online at www.templetheatre.com or in person at 201 N. Washington Ave., Saginaw.

The Temple Theatre is located at 201 N. Washington Ave. in Saginaw. Box-office hours are Monday - Friday 8am to 6pm and Saturday 9am – 5pm. As always, there will be free parking and shuttle service from the Saginaw Tower, 515 N. Washington, two blocks north of the Temple. # # #
