Saginaw, MI - Internationally-known comedian Nazareth will be bringing his Free to Laugh Comedy Concert to Saginaw, MI on Saturday, November 8th at The Temple Theatre located at 203 N. Washington Avenue, Saginaw, MI 48607. Those who will attend this year's event will enjoy an evening of clean side splitting comedy and mind boggling illusions.

The Medical community agrees that a good dose of laughter is one of the things that cause our brain to produce hormones called beta endorphins, which reduce pain, and our adrenal glands to manufacture cortisol, which is a natural anti-inflammatory that's wonderful for arthritis. So invite your friends and relatives and come and be healed.

Nazareth has a unique way of blending humor with truth, all from a man born in the Holy Land and raised in the Middle East. He believes that his message brings healing to all Americans. Here is an Arab who's saying to our troops: "We support you and we're behind you and we want you back home safe."

Nazareth's Comedy has reached millions on television broadcasts as varied on Comedy Central, The 700 Club, and the NBC Nightly News. He's toured with the Temptations and the Righteous Brothers with his act that appeals to all ages. Churches number among Nazareth's favorite venues. Tough audience? No problem – Nazareth has entertained congressmen, IRS agents, death-row inmates, and leaders of America's top corporations.

Appearing with Nazareth will be Illusionist Jarrod Mac. From comedy clubs to boat cruises, colleges to corporate, private parties to churches, Jarrod Mac has entertained thousands all across the United States in a variety of television, radio, and personal appearances. Jarrod is one of the youngest, regularly performing, professional comedy/magic entertainers working today.

The event is appealing to all ages, Married Couples, Youth, adult singles as well as senior citizens. Bring your loved ones and come on out to The Temple Theatre for an evening of clean side splitting comedy and mind boggling illusions. We'll be looking for you Saturday, November 8th at 7:00 PM.
