The Saginaw County Police Chiefs Association
Presents
Daryle Singletary

SAGINAW, MI -- The Police Chiefs Association of Saginaw County proudly presents an evening of country music May 2, 2011 at 7pm, starring Daryle Singletary, a hardcore country traditionalist who earned his notoriety for country authenticity with such unforgettable hits as, I Let Her Lie, Too Much Fun, Amen Kind of Love and The Note.

After members of the Randy Travis band heard Daryle at The Broken Spoke they urged Randy to listen too. With Randy as his co-producer, Daryle issued his debut album on Giant Records in 1995. Since his debut album some of the greatest talents in the country music industry have lined up to sing with Daryle, including George Jones, Dwight Yoakam, Merle Haggard and Ricky Skaggs.

All proceeds will help with educational programs and equipment needs for the Saginaw County Police Chiefs Association, and as a secondary mission to provide financial assistance to the families of public safety officials who have been injured or killed in the line-of-duty.
