An endowed research fellowship will be established by Field Neurosciences Institute (FNI) according to E. Malcolm Field, M.D., founder and medical director of FNI. The new fellowship will be for promising neuroscience students who will gain experience and contribute to the research efforts at FNI.

Proceeds from FNI's September 23 fundraiser, Field of Hope BennettFit starring the remarkable talent of Dave Bennett will launch the first ever FNI fellowship, greatly increasing opportunities for medical breakthroughs in the FNI lab in Saginaw. The fellowship will be a perpetual source of support for inspired researchers who possess a passion for neuroscience and a fervent desire to commit their time and energy toward searching for promising new therapies. It will support an enduring source of new talent in FNI's hope and quest to find effective treatment and cures for neurological dysfunction.

Dr. Field states, "We are making significant progress in our research efforts at FNI, and, at the same time, providing world-class opportunities for a new generation of neuroscientists to work on cutting-edge research being conducted in the Great Lakes Bay Region."

Field of Hope BennettFit will begin at 5:30 p.m. with a bountiful buffet at the beautiful Temple Theatre followed by the performance of Dave Bennett at 8:00 p.m. Supporters will be greeted outside the Theatre by the DooDads, a local group of bluegrass musicians. Sponsorships, available through FNI by calling (989) 497-3117, begin at $125 and include dinner and the show. Show only tickets for $50 and $30 are available at the Temple Theatre by calling (989) 754-7469, www.TempleTheatre.com, or through the Temple Theatre Box Office. Tickets will go on sale to the Marquee Club on August 26 and to the general public on August 29.

The Temple Theatre is located at 201 N. Washington Ave. in Saginaw. Box office hours are Monday – Friday, from 8am to 6pm. As always, there will be free parking and shuttle service from the Saginaw Tower, 515 N. Washington, two blocks north of the Temple. # # #
